Council Overrides Omission By Mayor

Upholds Action During 50-Minute Walkout By Davis At Aug. 5 Session

(Related stories on pages 5 & 35)

Contending Mayor Davis was negligent of his duties in staging a 50-minute walkout of the Aug. 5 council session, a majority of the aldermen Monday night voted to include their actions during the intermission in the minutes of that evening's "double session."

Mayor Davis, who had left Monday for an Oakbrook vacation, had ordered City Clerk A. L. Stevens not to record officially the council's actions while he was out of the room that night. The mayor's support was by City Atty. George Filcoff Jr., who said the council had no authority to elect a "mayor pro tem" while the mayor was in the city hall.

Filcoff said the council could name a "chairman" in such an instance. The technicality failed to impress the council.

Several aldermen had asked Clerk Stevens to prepare copies of the minutes of the Aug. 5 session presided over by Alderman Donald Partney. Copies of the Aug. 5 meeting minutes received through the mail by the aldermen during the intermission did not include them, but they were presented during Monday night's session.

New Aldermen Speak Out
New aldermen pointed out the city clerk's error in not recording properly and efficiently if the mayor walks out of a meeting and stays out for 50 minutes.

The mayor throws out committee chairmen with every disapproval.

Alderman William McGee called for the meeting minutes to reflect the graphic picture of council activities. "The council is responsible to 42,000 people. If we act stupidly and silly, they should know that, just as they should know when we act honorably."

Alderman Samuel Whitmer asked for the omitted minutes to be made an official record.

"This is a new group of aldermen. They're thinking differently, and the people showed us in the last election that they wanted change," Whitmer said.

Alderman Mrs. Gabrielle Belcoff tried to halt Whitmer with a point of order. Alderman Partney, who had been named to the position, declined Whitmer to stay on the subject.

But Whitmer Took Change:
The people told us we had better change, and we're trying to do it."

The dispute between the council and mayor on Aug. 5 resulted in Mayor Davis replacing C. H. Sternberg as chairman of the Street and Alley committee by the new alderman Alderman Belcoff.

The council retaliated by electing Mayor Davis to the position of chairman of the city code, to name committees. They submitted a three-member committee consisting of Sternberg, Whitmer and Earl Thompson.

That was when the mayor called the council recess and walked out.

During the regular committee report portion of Monday night's council session, Presiding Officer Partney called upon Sternberg to give the Street and Alley committee report.

When Whitmer called for the minutes of the 40-minute session to be a part of the records of the council.

Loss Of Income For City GC Tax Collector Objects To New Policy Set By County

Loss of income to the city through a ruling instituted by County Treasurer George Musso may result in legal action being taken by Granite City Tax Collector Ernest "Pat" Rich. The loss could range from $200 to $10,000.

Rich told the Press-Record this week that Musso has refused to credit Granite City with tax payments made at Edwardsville since the 1962 tax collection started in July.

"The city will lose the 2% commission which has been a general operating fund and keeps the city tax rate down," Rich pointed out. He added that it has been the practice for years that taxes paid at Edwardsville by Granite City property owners during the regular collection here are returned to the city and the city receives the 2% commission.

He plans to confer with the city attorney and mayor to determine what steps can be taken to "County Needs Commission."

Musso told the Press-Record yesterday that the county needs a commission as much as the city, and that there is no law requiring him to return the taxes to allow the city to deduct the commission.

Rich sent letters out in March advising all collectors of this. Musso said, "and I'm not going to make an exception for Granite City."

Rich, who was named by Mayor Davis to succeed Collector Frank Sappington last April, when Sappington retired, said he did not receive the letter. He added that he conferred with Sappington, and the former collector had not received it.

"I don't know what happened," Musso said, "but I'll get Rich a letter this week. And, I might say that I was never officially notified by the city that Sappington had retired."

Musso added that he decided to make the change in policy due to confusion in Namekook township last year when taxes paid in Edwardsville by Namekook township property owners were returned to the collector and were not marked off the books.

He said the formula for the 1959 to ensure that the city was penalized for other townships.

GC Steel Protests $34,600 Of Tax Bill

Firm's $2,030,000 Taxes Highest In County; Value One-Third Of All GC

Granite City Steel Co., largest single taxpayer in Madison county, today announced it is paying a portion of its current property taxes under protest as to the illegality of certain tax rates in order to protect the company against an "arbitrary and unjustified" addition of $1,000,000 to its assessed valuation as established last year by the Madison county board of review.

Nicholas P. Vander, chairman of the board and president of Granite City Steel, said the review board last year insisted on over-riding a formula used since 1959 to ensure that the city and improvements to Granite City Steel's plant are valued annually on a consistent and understandable basis.

Mr. Vander said the formula was originally worked out by agreement between the company and the Granite City Township Board of Review to ensure that the city's plant are valued annually on a consistent and understandable basis.

He said the formula was applied in the public interest and pointed out that it has led to Granite City Steel's assessment being increased more rapidly than that of any other large plant in Madison county, which contains much of the Illinois-Missouri Metropolitan area's heavy industry.

The board of review established a 1962 assessed valuation on the plant and other taxable property of Granite City Steel and its wholly owned subsidiary company of Granite City Steel, which taxes on that assessment, due at this time, amount to $2,030,000.

This is the first year that billings to any Madison county taxpayer have reached the $2,000,000 mark.

Mr. Vander said the Madison county board of review departed from the formula and the use of a cost-of-construction factor in assessing new facilities at Granite City Steel when two of the three members of the board, as it was constituted last year, voted to add $1,000,000 to the 1962 valuation that the Namekook township board had placed on Granite City Steel's blast furnace facilities.

The property tax now due on that additional $1,000,000 amounts to $34,600. For legal reasons, the objections Granite City Steel is filing to certain tax rates with its payments to the collectors in Granite City and Namekook townships, where most of its property is located, must cover all rates held to be illegal.

Voting for the additional valuation were former review board chairman James Haller and Charles Root, both of the Alton, Ill., area.

CRASH INJURES THREE at 23rd street and Edison avenue where two autos collided shortly before 8 a.m. yesterday. Police said the convertible coupe was being operated north on Edison avenue by Lois M. Jones, 20, of 4033 Division street, who was hurt and charged with failure to yield right-of-way. Two occupants of the other auto also were hurt. The Jones' car is shown in the yard of Mrs. F. E. Camp, 2301 Edison avenue. (Additional picture on page 5.)

10 Persons Hurt As Traffic Mishap Rate Increases

3 Injured In Crash At 23rd And Edison; Two Motorcycle Accidents

An increasing rate of traffic accidents in the Quad-Cities resulted this week in 10 persons being injured. Several of the crash victims remain in hospitals.

So far this month in the area, 103 traffic crashes with 66 injuries have been reported. Also there has been one traffic death resulting from a pedestrian auto accident occurring in July.

Three Persons Hurt
Three persons were injured before 8 a.m. yesterday when a convertible auto driven by Lois M. Jones, 20, of 4033 Division street, and a car driven by Mrs. Ruth M. Rowekamp, 48, of 1637 Venice avenue, collided at 23rd street and Edison avenue.

The drivers and Howard Rowekamp, 48, of the Venice avenue address, a passenger, were taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital. The two women were admitted.

Mrs. Rowekamp complained of pains in the left knee and chest and of a headache. X-rays were taken. Lois Jones had pains in the neck, upper abdomen and both knees and had deep lacerations to the right side of the chin, inside of the mouth and both knees. Rowekamp was treated for abrasions to the right thumb and under the nose. X-rays were taken and he was released.

Granite City police said the Jones car was headed north on Edison avenue and lane in the yard of Mrs. F. E. Camp, 2301 Edison avenue, after striking the Rowekamp auto in the left rear, spinning it around. Lois Jones was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way.

Highway Accident
A Granite City man received serious injuries Monday shortly before 6 a.m. when a car in which he was a passenger apparently went out of control on Highway 111 near the entrance to Interstate 270.

In full condition today in St. Elizabeth Hospital is Gary Holman, 21, of 2204 L-e avenue. Sheriff's deputies later learned that the car had been stolen earlier in the day from the home of Arthur Bull, Rural Route One, Box 1328, Granite City. Holman told deputies that he was picked up by the driver of the auto as he was hitchhiking from Madison to Granite City.

An ambulance attendant on the scene said that the car apparently struck a wooden warning barricade and then came to rest against a concrete drain pipe which runs underneath the highway.

Holman was found standing near the car when sheriff's deputies arrived at the scene, said one deputy. The driver of the auto had fled. Holman was rushed to the hospital by ambulance.

Holman was given emergency treatment for abrasions to the right knee, left lower leg and his nose. His neck and nose were swollen and he complained of

Carpenters Accept 55 Cents To End Building Strike

Construction at most projects in the Quad-Cities and Madison county resumed today after an agreement was reached at 9 p.m. yesterday between the carpenters' unions and the Southern Illinois Builders Association.

A three-year contract provides for a total wage increase of 55 cents an hour, with 10 cents retroactive to Aug. 1, 25 cents beginning next Aug. 1 and 20 cents the third year.

The contract ended a strike by the carpenters which started Aug. 1 in other parts of southern Illinois. It tied up millions of dollars in construction.

Negotiators for the SIBA and the Carpenters District Council of Madison County and vicinity and the Tri-County District Council held a day-long session conducted by Bernard O'Keefe, federal mediator, at Belleville.

Ratification Vote Today
The 1350 members of the Madison county council, which picketed construction projects in Madison county, and parts of four others, remained on strike but negotiations with the SIBA were underway today. The Local also was on strike on Aug. 1.

Representatives Local 392, which represents 450 workers in 11 Illinois counties and parts of four others, remained on strike but negotiations with the SIBA were underway today. The Local also was on strike on Aug. 1.

Cement Masons Local 90 reached a tentative agreement with the contractors Monday and members returned to work Tuesday.

A false alarm was noted Tuesday morning when some workers believed that the Madison county carpenters group had accepted a 50-cent pay offer the previous night at a meeting at Edwardsville.

Workers reported to jobs but left them again when informed by carpenters that the strike was still in effect. Carpenters' pickets were pulled from construction sites on Monday.

But 35 delegates at the meeting rejected the proposal which had included 10 cents the first year and 20 cents for each of the following two years.

The levy is $38,015 higher than last year's $657,581 total.

The board also adopted from the tentative figure approved on July 16: It is $14,140 higher than the $1,604,456 appropriation for the past year.

GC Tax Collection Deadline Saturday

Latest Granite City tax payments of more than $620,000 have carried the total collection figure over the $3,400,000 mark. It was reported today by Collector Ernest "Pat" Rich, who said that $2,850,000 or 45%—of the city's total tax bill remains to be collected by Saturday's noon local payment deadline.

Rich, who is receiving payment in his office at city hall, said that residents who do not pay their taxes locally will have until Sept. 1 to pay them at the county treasurer's office in Edwardsville. Rich added that he would accept all mail payments postmarked by Saturday.

A final collection figure will be announced until Tuesday or Wednesday of next week.

Venice School Board Delays Budget Adoption

The adoption of Venice school district's $841,000 tentative 1963-64 year budget was delayed until Tuesday, Sept. 3, by the Venice school board at a night board hearing Monday.

The board also received a petition calling for gradual integration of all schools.

Board President Lester Salem, said final action was delayed in order to allow board members time to review the new appropriation. Sept. 3 is the board's next regularly scheduled meeting.

Following the brief budget hearing and board meeting, a group of 23 Negro residents, accompanied by Venice Mayor Dr. John Lee, City Clerk Mike Eberly and Venice Alderman William Griggs, Louis Ratliff and Oscar King, presented the integration petition to the board president. The petition signed by 78 persons called for gradual integration in the Venice school district with full and complete integration as the final goal.

John Irwin, a spokesman for the Negro group, told the board the integration issue was a long one.

MORE ABOUT
Council
Overrides

The Aug. 5 meeting, Atty. Filloff presented his opinion.

Attorney Says, "Improper"
The attorney said the council's actions were "improper" since the mayor was in the building. "You could have a chairman, but not a mayor pro-tem." He added that a mayor pro-tem could be named only for a prolonged absence of the mayor, such as illness.

McGee submitted a motion that the minutes of the 40-minute mayors session show that a majority of the council objected to the recess as the mayor left the council room.

Mrs. Bettine called for a deferment of action on the motion, saying an opinion was expected from the Illinois Municipal League.

Edmond Bartosiak objected, saying there was no roll call vote on the recess. "I remember a lot of confusion, but no vote was taken. People were jumping up and making a big stink."

He said there was a 50-minute recess and left. Then I learned the chief of police had been sent to look for me."

McGee replied that there was an immediate discussion of continuing the meeting as the mayor walked out. He added that motions for recess are to be made on the council floor and not called by the mayor, according to "Roberts Rules of Order."

Heated Exchange
"I told you and Mrs. Bettine the meeting would be continued," McGee added.

"That's a lie," Bartosiak replied. Partney threatened to have Bartosiak removed from the room.

Steve Basarich supported the opinion of the city attorney. "McGee wants to usurp the authority of the clerk," he added. Alderman Charles Moerlein, a former mayor, pointed out that after the mayor returned to the council room at 10 p.m. on Aug. 5, he recognized at least one action taken by the council in his absence.

There was a quorum present. We need a legal opinion on whether the mayor can resign when something disagrees with him and he goes into the back room to pout."

Bartosiak said most aldermen walked out of the council room when the mayor left. "All of us took the recess," he added.

Mrs. Bettine added that the mayor had left the meeting to seek an attorney.

Several aldermen said they heard no announcement that a recess had been called for that reason.

Alderman Thompson told her. "The mayor didn't say he went out to get an attorney."

Basarich Comments
Basarich commented, "This just shows that who you are and what side you're on is what counts. Last Wednesday (Aug. 14) we waited 20 minutes for Alderman Thompson."

Partney explained that Mayor Davis had called the Wednesday special session for updating city building codes to qualify for a $1,000,000 federal grant, and it was necessary to wait until the proper number of aldermen was present to officially conduct the meeting and meet on Aug. 22 deadline set by the government.

Finally, with the elimination of the word "majority" from the description of a majority of aldermen objecting to the recess.

Approving the added minutes were Partney, Paul Rutledge, Casner Skubish, Whitmer, Ford Johnson, J. D. Bergfield, Clyde Boyd, McGee, Moerlein, C. H. Sternberg and Thompson. Voting "no" were Basarich, Mrs. Bettine and Bartosiak. Those absent, in addition to the mayor, were Aldermen Walter Nonn and William Dallas.

Model Airplane Contest Set Sunday At Park

A model airplane contest will be held at noon Sunday at Wilson Park under the sponsorship of the Granite City Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Granite City Grit Grinders Model Airplane Club, according to plans advanced last night at the Jaycee meeting at the Knights of Columbus hall.

Fifteen trophies will be awarded for sanctioned events to include stunt flying, speed, combat, scale, rat racing and Navy carrier landing.

Members of model airplane clubs are eligible to compete and may register with Paul Morris, a member of both sponsoring organizations. He will serve as contest director.

The Jaycees decided to make its Granite City homecoming an annual affair following a report given on the last celebration by Grad Krause, general chairman. Named as the general chairman for next year's homecoming was John Lakin.

James Spinks, who served as chairman of the recent Junior sports jamboree, which the club sponsored, was named Jaycee of the month.

The Miss Majorette of Illinois contest sponsored recently by the Jaycees was termed a success.

Trades Council Pushes For Resident Physician

The Tri-City Central Trades Council passed a resolution last night to ask the Illinois AF-CIO to seek state legislation requiring a resident physician to be on the staff of all hospitals in the state.

The issue arose when one of 61 delegates at the meeting complained that a union member who was injured on the job had to wait a hour and a half for service at the local hospital. He had a compound fracture.

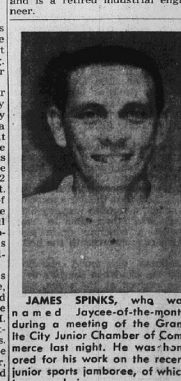

The council hopes to meet with the Tri-City Medical Society in an attempt to resolve the situation. The hospital in the past has attempted to obtain a resident physician. Local doctors on the hospital staff currently take turns at being "on call."

On the Negro employment issue, the council decided that each of the 57 locals represented in the council must decide upon its own policies and that the council could not dictate to them.

Edwin Reiske, chairman, was instructed to ask the state director of workmen's compensation and state director of insurance to appear at future meetings.

Munson Undergoes Surgery

Chester W. Munson, 2548 Cleveland Blvd., is recovering at Barnes Hospital from major surgery which he underwent Monday. He is a former member of the Granite City school board and a retired industrial engineer.

Venice Continues Pushing For Broadway RR Underpass

Venice city officials went to Springfield yesterday in an effort to secure approval for construction of the Broadway rail crossing underpass in next year's state highway program.

Taking part in the conference with Virgil Staff, chief highway engineer, were Mayor Lee, City Clerk William Ebersold, City Engineer Edward Juneau and Walter Simmons, advertising manager for McKinley Bridge.

City officials are scheduled to meet next month with members of the Illinois Commerce Commission to determine the amount of construction costs to be borne by the railroads. The city is hopeful the cost also will be shared by the state and federal governments.

Last week, the project received the support of Gov. Otto Kerner, who said he would recommend the underpass as a necessity for the Quad-City area since the McKinley Bridge is one of the major links between Madison county and Missouri.

Yesterday's meeting was arranged to continue the city's effort toward accomplishment of the project, and results are expected to be known later this year when the state announces its road and highway program for 1964.

Baumeyer Named To Head Welfare Agency Board

The Protestant Welfare Association accepted the resignation of Oliver Jacobmeyer as president during its regular monthly meeting Tuesday night at Tri-City Park Tabernacle.

Jacobmeyer, who has returned to private business, was not present at the meeting and submitted his resignation as president during its regular monthly meeting Tuesday night at Tri-City Park Tabernacle.

The association handled 23 welfare cases during July. A report filed by officer secretary Mrs. Marie Whittle showed fifty persons, including eight transients, were involved, and the agency expended $161 for food, $36 for utility payments, $89 for medical aid, most of which is to be reimbursed by the United Fund health services, and $22 for new clothing and shoes.

Storefront Orders

Twenty-one orders for clothing and shoes were filled from Protestant Welfare's storefront at an estimated cost of $130. Other incidentals furnished totaled $33.

The association's September meeting will be held at the Venice Methodist Church. A banquet and installation of new officers is scheduled Nov. 21 at Niedringhaus Methodist Church.

An officers' nominating committee was appointed, and includes Roy Lynn, Thomas Kelso and Dr. E. H. Theis. A devotional and closing prayer at Tuesday's meeting were given by Rev. R. D. Shaw.

Aldermen Call For Detailed Records And Assignment Control Of City Hall Handyman

An order for records to be kept on work done by city hall handyman Delbert Lampher was issued Monday night by Granite City council members.

The city's $13,710 bill included payment of $396 to Lampher for services from July 29 through Aug. 15. His pay was charged off to the city hall and police department funds.

Duties of the handyman were questioned by Alderman William McGee, who asked what Lampher's role was in the overall operation of the city.

Comptroller John Doohar explained that Lampher is assigned from the mayor and from the controller's office for work around the city hall building and also does odd jobs for various city departments. He makes regular inspections of the city's 13 lift stations.

Hourly Rates

Doohar added that Lampher is paid at the rate of $3.45 an hour for regular work and $4.26 for electrical work.

That makes him the highest paid man in the city, even higher than the mayor, McGee remarked.

The comptroller said Lampher was kept busy doing repair jobs at the city hall and maintaining city equipment. When it was brought out that he was not on regular assignment, the council ordered that he be directed to report each day to a responsible person and that records of his work be maintained. Doohar said

Bad Things Come In Twos For GC Family

There is an old superstition that mishaps occur in multiples of three. At least they came in twos this week for the Joe Bodi family. Bodi, 7, and Jeffrey, 5, both were treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital Monday at 2:45 p.m. for slight injuries sustained in separate mishaps less than 24 hours apart.

Yesterday's accident occurred Sunday while the Bodi family was spending a weekend fishing in Devil's Kitchen Lake near Carbondale. Edward mashed the index fingers of both hands between the legs of a folding camp stool as he prepared to sit down on the stool at the lake's edge.

The Bodi family had only been home for a matter of hours when the second mishap occurred. Jeffrey was nipped by the family dog on the left ear as he was playing with it Monday.

Probably with an air of resignation, the family said that mishaps would occur any minute. Mr. Bodi put the boys in the family car and took them to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where they were both given emergency treatment and sent home.

VA To Operate Nursing Homes Facilities

The President has authorized the Veterans Administration to activate and operate facilities and beds to care for 2000 nursing home type veteran patients.

The authorization was reported today by John S. Gleason Jr., administrator of Veterans Affairs, who said the 2000 nursing home beds would be operated in addition to the 125,000 hospital beds now authorized within the VA medical system.

The presidential action, Gleason said, will greatly help in relieving the adverse impact on VA's acute medical programs by the influx of older veterans who now comprise one-third of all VA hospital admissions, and who generally require long term care.

GC To Object To Outback In Train Stops

Objections to curtailment of passenger train stops by Wabash railroad will be made by the city of Granite City during a hearing before the Illinois Commerce Commission at Springfield on Sept. 4.

Council members instructed City Atty. George Filcoff Jr. Monday night to attend the hearing and express the city's objections.

While the trains would continue to stop at Granite City, the curtailment of other passenger stops between St. Louis and Decatur is an indication the railroad wants to abandon the trains completely.

Alderman Charles Moerlein pointed out. He added that similar steps have been taken by other railroads in the past prior to gaining permission to eliminate the trains.

The authorization was reported today by John S. Gleason Jr., administrator of Veterans Affairs, who said the 2000 nursing home beds would be operated in addition to the 125,000 hospital beds now authorized within the VA medical system.

The presidential action, Gleason said, will greatly help in relieving the adverse impact on VA's acute medical programs by the influx of older veterans who now comprise one-third of all VA hospital admissions, and who generally require long term care.

'B' Regional Title To Be Decided At Park Tonight

A regional champion which will represent Granite City in the state Class "B" softball finals next week at Macomb will be crowned tonight at Wilson Park.

Four teams remain in the running today after rain washed out scheduled play over the weekend.

Granite City Steel Credit Union and Madison Bowl will tangle at 6:30 tonight, and Union Starch and Second Baptist will meet at 8 p.m. The winners clash at 9:30 for the regional title.

The Baptists and Madison Bowl won first round games last Saturday. Credit Union and Union Starch had been awarded first round byes.

The Granite City champion will play its first game at Macomb on Saturday, Aug. 31, meeting the winner of a first round game between teams from the Lexington and Peoria regions. The state tournament begins next Wednesday and continues through Labor Day, Sept. 2. Last Sunday's regional games were postponed due to rain.

All-America football players who will be returning to their teams this fall are halfback Mel Renfro of Oregon and quarterback George Mira of Miami.

I-C Teams Face Problem: Rainouts Pile Up As Playing Time Runs Out

Rain marred the Southwestern Illinois Inter-City Baseball league schedule for the seventh time in 18 weekends Sunday, but for the first time this season all five games scheduled were washed out.

Clubs now have seven games which must be made up before the regular season ends on Sept. 8, and the scheduling will be tight since none of the teams involved in the rain dates are due to meet again.

Two Foul Squeeze
The squeeze will be felt most by Moose Lodge and Mercer Funeral Home, who last Sunday were to play a doubleheader, one game of which was due to an earlier rainout.

"It's up to the managers of the teams involved to get their heads together and work out makeup dates," league President Vernon Lucas told the Press-Record this week. "There was some talk of extending our season last Sept. 8; it came up at our last league meeting, but was not proposed in the form of a motion."

"It would be difficult to extend the regular season any way," Lucas continued, "since our playoffs could possibly run through Oct. 13 as it is."

League Secretary Henry Huser of Troy said yesterday that none of the clubs with makeup games to be played had advised him as to re-scheduling of rainouts.

There's the possibility that the lighted diamond in Collinsville (Fletcher Field) will be used to make up some of the games," Huser revealed.

Can Set Makeup Dates
"The league by-laws also state that the president may arbitrarily set the dates for play-off games, if the managers involved don't reschedule the games on their own," the secretary added.

As it stands now, I-C clubs have 27 games remaining on the schedule—and just 18 days in which to complete them. A few, those which would have no bearing on the final standings, or on teams (three from each division) with possibilities of making the post-season playoffs, could be written off.

Eight of the league's 10 teams still are in the playoff running, however. That number includes all five Red division clubs. Only a game and a half separates the third place club from the fourth place team in this loop.

11 Labor Day Games
Only one thing could further complicate the schedule: more rain on Sunday, when five single games are scheduled, or over the Labor Day weekend, when 11 are to be played.

Sacred Heart will try to gain a third place tie with Troy in the Red division, while Mercer can keep its Blue title hopes alive at Wilson Park by beating Carpenter.

Moose Lodge could clinch a tie for the Red division title by turning back Maryville in East St. Louis, and St. Clair Heating can move to within one game of a sure tie for first in the Blue by getting the best of Collinsville at Fletcher Field.

Pocahontas, the team with the best shot at St. Clair, will be at home to the All-Wood Flyers in Sunday's fifth contest. All games will begin at 2:30.

SIU Begins 'Informal Affiliation' With MVC

Athletic Director Donald Boydston announced this week that Southern Illinois University, whose athletic teams competed independently last season after withdrawing from the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, will become "informally affiliated" with the Missouri Valley Conference at the start of the 1963-64 academic year.

SIU's sports program thus will come under the supervision of MVC Commissioner Norvall Neve, who will certify eligibility lists, select and assign game officials and record annual participation records for all SIU contests.

Southern is known to be eyeing full membership in the MVC. The SIU-MVC agreement calls for MVC rules to be applied to all incoming freshmen this year, making freshmen ineligible for varsity competition except in football.

SIU dominated most sports in the IAC, winning three straight all-sports titles prior to its withdrawal and assumption of an independent status last year.

plans to retire as an active player.

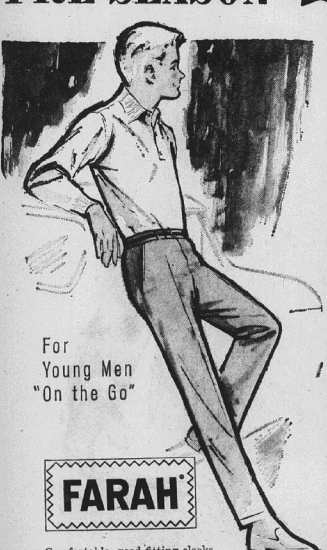

The YMCA Teen Town here is sponsoring a charter bus trip to the final game, with the cost of a reserved seat at Busch Stadium and round-trip transportation $3 for YMCA members and $2.25 for non-members. Tickets may be obtained at the Teen Town office. Teen Town members will be given first choice.

One Of 6 Teams Left Alive In State Tourney; Championship Game Sunday

The battle for the Amateur Softball Association state championship will resume tomorrow night at the Owens-Illinois field near Godfrey, after a six-day delay because of rain. Six teams from an original field of 16 are still in the running for the Illinois title.

The Granite City park district, which had to settle for the runner-up spot last year in the same tourney, will tonight with Hymnaburg Motors of Pekin in the first game at 7:45, and Peoria's She Kat Club is to oppose Deland at 9:15. Both games are in the quarterfinal of the single elimination tournament.

The park, which will hold hot-chants on Saturday evening in semifinals. The Merchants defeated the Alton Jackson Chiefs last Saturday, 4-0.

Title Game Sunday

Saturday's semifinals are scheduled at 7:45 and 9:15 p.m. The title game will be played at 8 p.m. Sunday. The Illinois champion will join state titlists from Wisconsin, Kentucky and Indiana, metropolitan winners from Chicago, Milwaukee, Indianapolis and Louisville, the host Aurora Sealmasters and 1962 West-Central regional champion Decatur Merchants at the world tournament.

Pitcher Homer Lamb, working on a string of 49 straight scoreless innings yesterday afternoon at Cloverleaf in Alton, Children, who works at Granite City Steel and resides at 1710 Sixth street in Madison, aced the 180-yard par three 18th hole at Cloverleaf using a three iron against a head wind.

He was playing in a three-some with Robert Zellerman of Granite City and Cloverleaf pro Percy Valdez, who was playing a solo round, but had joined Children and Zellerman at the 10th tee.

Need Three Wins

To accomplish that feat, the park must turn back Hymnaburg tomorrow night, defeat Peoria tomorrow Saturday night, then win over the top bracket semifinal winners in the night state championship game. Palmer House, a 4-1 winner over the Young Democrats of Springfield in last Saturday's quarterfinals, is the club which knocked GC out of a trip to the 1962 West-Central regional by stopping the park 2-0 in the state title game.

In two meetings with Palmer House during the regular 1963 season, the park has come away with shutouts wins both times, 6-0 and 1-0.

In the upper bracket quarterfinals Friday evening, Peoria's She Kat Club and Deland will be matched in a game to decide who will oppose the Alt-Wood Merchants in the semifinals.

in his chest and his right thumb.

Sheriff's deputies were summoned to the scene by state police headquarters at French Village, after troopers received a report from a nearby resident.

Motorcycle Spills

Jerry W. Whitaker, 24, of Rural Route One, was injured at 3:45 p.m. Tuesday when a motorcycle he was driving spilled onto him as he turned from Madison avenue and Second street. According to the Madison police report, witnesses said he was going too fast to make the turn.

He was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was admitted with lacerations to the left leg and a pain in the right shoulder. Hospital spokesmen said he was in fair condition.

Gilbert Culver, 26, of 52 Grenzer Homes, Madison, was hurt when a motor scooter he was driving was involved in an accident with a car driven by Hubert J. Adams, 38, of 2615 East 25th street, at 3:05 p.m. Monday at East 23rd and August streets.

He was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital with abrasions to the left hip, back and forearm. Adams, who told police he had made a stop sign on August by Third street and Madison avenue, was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way.

L. Harris, 46, of 912 State street, was injured when a car she was driving was struck in the rear by a hit-and-run driver Monday while she was stopped at a red traffic light at Third street and Madison avenue.

She was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was given emergency care and x-rayed for neck and back injuries. She was released. Madison police identified the owner of the other car as a Cahokia resident who said he had loaned the car to a friend. The driver is to be charged with leaving a scene of an accident when apprehended.

Jack Rogers, 25, of 438 Highway 162, suffered injuries to his chest, skull and face in a one-car accident at 6:10 p.m. Tuesday at 3900 Pontoon road outside of the city limits. He was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital. The accident occurred as he lost control while passing a car. His auto entered a ditch and struck a tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Eftimoff, 1625 Poplar street, suffered slight bruises in an automobile accident last night at Staunton. They were treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital here. They were released.

Kay Emblich, 13, of Rural Route Four, Edwardsville, received emergency treatment at 10:20 p.m. Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital for abrasions to the right side of her forehead suffered in an auto accident. She was released.

MORE ABOUT GC Steel

Wood River area. Opposing it was the late Arthur "Pete" Fields of Venice. Haller has been replaced on the review board by County Board Chairman Harold Landolt, while Frank Rissi of Collinsville was named recently to Field's unexpired term.

Schools Not Involved

This could have tied up the payment of $289,601 of the company's current taxes to four public bodies — the city of Granite City, the East Side Levee and Sanitary District, Madison county and Nemois township. However, Mr. Veeder said, Granite City Steel is prepared to enter into an agreement or stipulation with each of the four so they can receive all but 11.95¢, or $34,600, of the taxes paid under protest.

Mr. Veeder said the company intends to "hold to a minimum the inconvenience suffered by any of these taxing bodies from a situation not of their making."

He said the company will actually recover only the $34,600 broken down as follows: $20,789 from taxes due the city of Granite City, $11,955 from taxes due the Levee District, $12,471 from taxes due Madison county, and $869 from taxes due Nemois township.

Principle Involved

"More is at stake here than $34,600 in property taxes," Mr. Veeder said. "There is an important principle involved. We hope our concern is shared by everyone in Madison county who wants to see the tax burden distributed evenly and fairly among all classes of taxpayers."

"Granite City Steel is more than meeting its tax obligations. We're willing to hide and we are determined now and in the future to resist to the best of our ability any arbitrary and unreasonable increase in our taxes, no matter how small."

"We believe this position is sound and supported by our record as a taxpayer. In addition, we would be ignoring our responsibilities to the employees and stockholders of this company if we failed to seek relief when an unfair or arbitrary increase in our tax load tends to weaken our competitive position by increasing our operating costs."

Sharp Jump In Assessment

Mr. Veeder said Granite City Steel Company's share of the total assessed valuation in Madison county has increased from 1.7% in 1947 to 3.1% in 1957 to 6.8% in 1962. The company's share of the total assessed valuation in Granite City has increased from 1.45% in 1947 to 10% in 1957 to 28.1% in 1962. Its share of the total assessed valuation in Nemois township has increased from zero in 1947, when it did not own the blast furnace plant, to 13.2% in 1957 and to 26.6% in 1962. He pointed out that this trend has been maintained even though the residential and industrial tax base in both Madison county and the two townships has been expanding at an above-average rate.

"Our 1947 property tax bills amounted in total to $120,504," Mr. Veeder said. "Our 1957 tax bills totaled $689,194. Our current tax bills of $2,080,090 are almost 16 times greater than those in 1947."

"The steady growth in assessed valuation on our property over our assessment is more than 10 times that of most other industries in Madison county and more than double all but two," Granite City Steel, one of the few large industries with main offices as well as all manufacturing facilities in Madison county, has approximately 5,000 employees. The company manufactures plates, hot and cold rolled sheets and other flat rolled steel products, including galvanized and tin plate. Its products are shipped to steel-using manufacturers in a regional market that covers much of the midwest, south and southwest.

Initial announcement of the tax objections was made Tuesday afternoon to representatives of the taxing agencies involved. Attending the meeting at the steel firm's office were Joseph Cohn, Nemois township tax assessor; Comptroller John Dooher of Granite City; County Auditor John Kraynak and Ben Day, clerk of the levee board. Also invited were Mayor Davis and Granite City Assessor Von Dee Cruse, both of whom are out of town on vacations; Granite Township Supervisor Harry Briggs, who also is vacationing; County Treasurer George Musso, who had a prior commitment; and Harold Landolt, who recently was released from a hospital.

Stolen Payroll Check
Cashied At Liquor Store

A payroll check for $197.80, stolen from the G. H. Sternberg contracting firm of Granite City, has been passed at the Red Crown Liquor store in Madison.

Three other checks for the same amount which were stolen from Sternberg were cashed recently in Alton. They were endorsed by a "Leroy A. Justice." The endorsement on the check cashed at the liquor store was "James Bradford."

Disturbance By Discipline

Police received at 10:15 last night an emergency call from a disturbance in the 4900 block at Kirkpatrick Homes.

The disturbance, police learned, was being caused by a small boy receiving a spanking from his parent. The officers took no steps to halt the disciplinary action.

that most of the Negro community wants the board to integrate the school system by accepting gradual Negro enrollment in the previously all-white Venice high school and grade school and to continue the gradual integration process until the teachers, custodians, and cafeteria workers employed at the school.

The petition also appealed to the board not to close either of the Lincoln schools. It was stated by Salem at a previous board meeting that the Negro Lincoln high school would be closed if the school's enrollment were to drop below 100 students and the school board would have to disband most of the teachers, custodians, and cafeteria workers employed at the school.

After a brief discussion, the board voted to accept the petition and to formulate a long-range program for complete integration of all school facilities, beginning with the coming school year.

"The petition," said Salem is more or less along the lines of what the board feels should be done."

The president said, "the board has been studying the possibility of complete integration for the past two years," and "it feels that it can only be accomplished successfully if done in a gradual and orderly manner."

Committee To Be Formed

Salem and Supt. John Pier appealed to the Negro group to work closely with the school board to find the solution of the segregation problem. A committee, to be composed of board members, representatives of interested Negro groups in the community and the principals of Venice and Lincoln high schools, is to be formed in the near future and will be responsible for formulating a working integration plan.

Mayor John Lee said that "because the board has accepted the petition in good faith, it now has the duty and obligation to create a sound desegregation program and to work to find a solution to the integration problem."

The load is now on the school board's back," the Mayor added. "They now have to carry out their program."

Fourth Ward Alderman William Griggs told the Negro group that "it takes time for an integration program to be successful and that groups on both sides have to cooperate fully and work together in a friendly manner."

"If both groups fight over the issue," added Griggs, "there will be no winner and the children of this school district will be the ones that will suffer."

Four-Month Transit Report

Bi-State Agency To Increase Air-Conditioned Bus Fleet

Bi-State Development Agency commissioners, meeting today in St. Louis, announced plans to order 50 new, streamlined air-conditioned buses for its routes and to order air conditioning units for installation 50 to 75 buses now in service.

The commissioners said all objections to the proposed fare changes, set to begin Oct. 1, will be reviewed prior to that date. They pointed out the agency date bus systems on both sides of the river and to take over the operation of the 15 separate transit firms which were having financial difficulties.

In its four-month report on operation of transit operations, the commissioners pointed out that they are non-salaried and are not even entitled to passes to ride the buses.

The report made today by the Agency follows:

Governmental Body
The Bi-State Development Agency is a governmental body. Its members are public officers. The Bi-State Agency now owns and operates your transportation facilities in this area and regulates the fares charged for transit.

"The members of the Agency are appointed in the same way as the members of other state regulatory bodies are, by the governor of each state, with the concurrence of the Senate of each state. As an agency of the government, Bi-State may not profit from its operation of your transit system in any normal business sense. Every dollar earned above the cost of the transit operation will and must be used to improve your transit service.

"We entered the public transit field on April 1, 1963, because our studies, supplementing those made by other public bodies, had convinced us of the need for an integrated area-wide transit system.

"It seemed obvious too that the financial condition of many of the privately owned carriers was so precarious that this area was threatened with a total breakdown of transit service within the near future. Your ownership of transit through the Bi-State Agency has eliminated this danger, and you are now in possession of transit service at all future times.

"With the release of our four-month financial statement, as a governmental agency, we think it useful to inform you of our progress during that period.

Labor Relations
"In four months we have accomplished the tremendous task of integrating all labor personnel of the 15 private transit companies who formerly operated transit in this area. This was an expensive process, but the upgrading of the pay of transit employees was an inevitable process. "During these four months, we have coordinated the routes and services of the 15 different systems and this is a process which is continuing. This was the largest single undertaking of its kind in the history of American transit operations. It was a pioneering effort without precedent and we feel it has been accomplished with great success.

"Even at a time when we were occupied in making this involved transition, we have been able to bring you a number of definite and substantial improvements in service. Most riders in this area who had to use the equipment of more than one of the former privately owned transit lines received a 10-cent reduction in fare.

Additional Improvements
"We are examining the operation of every line in the entire system seeking to make additional improvements. Of interest to all of you who use our transit system are our plans for improving equipment. The immediate features of that plan are:

"1. We are placing an order for the purchase of 50 new streamlined air conditioned buses.

"2. We are ordering air conditioning installed in an additional 50 to 75 buses now in service.

"3. We plan 12 to 15 new express bus lines into St. Louis county and to Madison and St. Clair counties in Illinois.

"As a result of the steps we are now announcing, next summer your Bi-State transit system will operate the largest fleet of air conditioned buses in the world. We will have 550 air conditioned buses on the street for your comfort. Air conditioning equipment will be used on all express service, mid-day shopper service and weekend service.

"On Oct. 1, our regular riders will be benefited by a monthly transportation pass, the first ever to be used in this country. To those riders who regularly use their Bi-State transit system, this pass, through repeated use, could result in the most inexpensive public transportation in any city in this country.

"If the Bi-State Agency is to serve the transportation needs of all of the citizens of this area, transit must be conducted on a sound economic basis. Our four-month figures show that we are seriously close to a bare breakeven point. In the establishment of our integrated system, we have announced certain adjustments and equalization of fares, many of which are to take effect with the beginning of school and others on Oct. 1.

"The major factors of the fare plan offer almost all of our regular riders an opportunity to ride at reduced fares. Despite this, opposition to the proposed adjustments have been voiced in certain communities.

Reviewing Objections
"We have met with representatives of those communities and we are now reviewing all of the points of objection which have been raised. Even the opposition to these adjustments point up an additional benefit of the Bi-State operation. This agency is composed of men who live and work in the communities affected. We are not a remote agency of government, but we are close at hand to those who have points to make.

"It would be less than reasonable not to recognize that mass transit faces serious problems everywhere in the country. The closest metropolitan area to St. Louis is Kansas City. In Kansas City, public transportation is operated by a private transit company. Although the wage rates for transit employees in Kansas City are fully 7% below ours, the basic cash fare in Kansas City is now 27c and we understand there is now pending an application to permit this cash fare to be raised to 30c.

"Ultimately, the success of your Bi-State transit system depends upon your patronage. We are dedicated to bringing to you the best transportation service possible at the lowest possible cost. Your support of your transit system will insure the realization of the ambition."

Huckpals Stolen
Don Zimbelman, 2028 Iowa street, reported to Granite City police at 3:15 p.m. Tuesday that four large flipper type huckpals were stolen from his auto.

Venice GED Program To Start In October

A decision to continue with plans for the Venice-Madison General Educational Development program was announced by the Venice general education committee at its meeting Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Margaret Hance, committee chairman, told the 15 members present that the program will open during the first week of October and will have the support and cooperation of Venice school Supt. John P. Pler will attempt to secure volunteer teachers for the two-month program designed for persons over 21 years of age who have not completed high school.

Mrs. Hance also announced that Malcolm Thompson has been named to screen applicants for the program. Twenty Venice residents will be enrolled in the initial classes.

The group will hold its next meeting in mid-September. An exact date will be set later this month.

Membership Drive Nets C. Of C. 44 New Members

Forty-four new members were added to the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce membership role as a result of its one-day drive yesterday, it was announced today by Harlan Dobry, executive director.

Dobry said that, although the drive ended yesterday, he expected more names to be added to the new membership list before the drive is officially closed.

At a drive-closing meeting Wednesday night at the Rose Bowl restaurant, Chamber President Chester L. Baker told a group of chairmen and workers that the success of the drive was a "substantial vote of confidence for the future of the community and for the Chamber of Commerce's program for forward progress."

Also at the meeting awards were presented to the top three membership salesmen and the top membership recruiting team.

The group headed by Walter M. Rozycki was the winning team with twelve new members and will be honored at a dinner later in the month.

Harold Hotson's team was second with six members and the group headed by A. J. Mueller Jr. and Charles A. Meyers finished in a tie for third with four new members each.

John C. Krug, 63, Succumbs In Hospital

John C. Krug, 63, of 2923 Denver street, died at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday in Jewish Hospital, St. Louis, where he was a patient for six days. Death was attributed to heart failure and complications.

Born in Perry county, Ill., he was a Granite City resident for 23 years. He was a railroad switchman at Granite City Steel Co., where he was employed for 17 years.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Krug; four daughters, Mrs. Ruby Worthen, Mrs. Velma Riebel, Mrs. Rosie Krimbro and Mrs. Nancy Johnson, all of Granite City; six sons, John Jr., Willy, Carl, Terry, Robert and Dick Krug, all of Granite City; a brother Casper Krug, St. Louis; the sisters, Mrs. Mary Dillday, Mrs. Emma Belle Fricke and Mrs. Pearl Hindman, all of Rockwood, Ill.; Mrs. Violet Fricke, Pimlico, and Mrs. Velma Lyons, Chester; and 20 grandchildren.

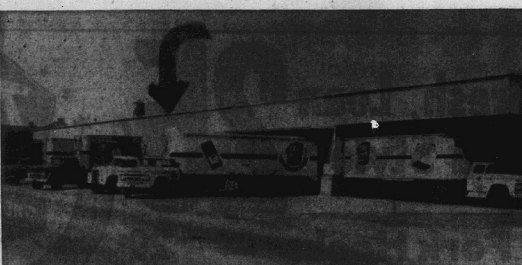

Funeral arrangements appear in the obituary column elsewhere in this issue.

There is no exequial without a time, and the time to work, is now—Mary Baker Eddy.

23 LOADING DOORS, which can be used for Tri-City Grocery Co. trucks. Trucks going to 22 stores or to unload merchandise coming into the warehouse are a part of the recently completed addition to the warehouse at 16th and State streets. Arrow shows where the new warehouse addition begins.

Council To Study Tax Zone, Fare Changes

Granite City council members are expected to review next Monday night a proposed zone and fare change ordinance submitted by two local taxicab firms.

Pat Myers and Clifford Stevens, proprietors of the firms, were present for Monday night's council session, but their proposal was referred to committee without being read.

They were advised the proposal would be reviewed and presented within a short time to the council for consideration.

It's impossible to prove your talents by shooting your critics.

Tri-City Grocery Warehouse Expansion Program Complete

Work has been completed on equivalent to the capacities of truck loading and freezing facilities at the Tri-City Grocery Co. warehouse, increasing the size of the warehouse to 157,400 square feet, it was announced today by Company President S. E. Pershall Jr.

The loading dock facilities were increased 8900 feet, said Pershall, because of "increased tonnage and the necessity to load trucks faster every morning."

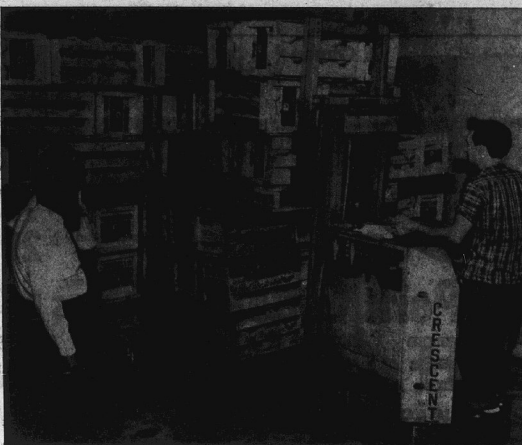

A 700-square foot freezer has increased the deep freeze space from 2800 to 3500 square feet. The freezers at the warehouse, which maintain a temperature of five degrees below zero, will hold about 375,500 pounds of frozen foods. This would be equivalent to the capacities of 15,180 home refrigerators. If the average load of a refrigerator is considered to be about 25 pounds.

The cooler space for handling dairy, fruits and produce has been increased to 9772 square feet.

M. H. Wolfe and Co. was in charge of the construction of the warehouse addition at 16th and State streets. Architect for the project was Gabriel Dulgeroff.

The Tri-City Grocery firm, which was founded in Granite City in 1914 by the late C. W. Pershall, will observe its 50th anniversary in April 1964. It started with a single store at 19th street and Cleveland blvd., which is still in operation, and 700-SQUARE-FOOT COOLERS just installed in the Tri-City Grocery Co. warehouse could each hold 2000 crates of cantaloupes, such as the ones being loaded onto a motorized truck. At left foreground is Bill Lange, vice-president in charge of produce operations. Standing beside him is Dwight Jackson, warehouse superintendent.

Johnson Discusses Trip

Madison Postmaster Harold Johnson was the guest speaker at the Madison Rotary club meeting held Wednesday afternoon in the Madison Memorial Center.

Johnson discussed his recent five-week trip to Europe and the Middle East and the progress made by Israel and the Arab states in the last four years.

He has 22 supermarkets (20 in Illinois and two in Missouri).

The firm has experienced rapid growth in recent years, and to keep pace with the increased number of stores and volume of business, the firm's warehouse facilities have been expanded almost continuously.

In recent years, 22,400 square feet of floor have been added to the warehouse. Serving the warehouse is a railroad spur with a 14 freight car capacity.

Dr. Obert M. Lay In Need Of House

Dr. Obert M. Lay, the only specialist in general surgery in Granite City, is in need of a house temporarily, it was announced this week.

Dr. Lay, who maintains an office in East St. Louis and shares an office with Dr. Robert H. Hill in the Bellemore Medical Building, has leased his present home in Creve Coeur, Mo., and must vacate it by September 1.

He is having a house built in Collinsville, but due to recent strikes in the building trades unions, the house is not expected to be completed for about four months.

With patients at five area hospitals—St. Elizabeth, Centerville Township, Belleville Memorial and Christian Welfare and St. Mary's in East St. Louis—Dr. Lay has very little time for house hunting. He has investigated several apartment houses in Granite City, but has found nothing to his satisfaction. He would prefer a three-bedroom brick home.

Dr. Jordan is planning to limit his practice to one location in the near future, and it is hoped by many hospital attendants and nurses at St. Elizabeth Hospital that he selects Granite City.

George Jordan, 53, Dies Early Today

George Lanford Jordan, 53, who had been under a doctor's care for a year and a half with a heart condition, died in his sleep last night. He was found dead in bed at 6 a.m. by his wife, Edith.

A Quad-Cities resident for 21 years, Mr. Jordan had lived in Granite City for the past three years, currently residing at 2105 Monroe street. Previously, he had lived for 13 years in Venice and about five years in Madison.

Mr. Jordan was employed for the past eight years as a truck driver for the Schramm Trucking Co. in Belleville. Formerly, he worked as a driver for the Thrift Coal Co., East St. Louis.

In addition to his wife, Edith, Mr. Jordan is survived by two sons, George M. Jordan Jr., stationed with the U.S. Marine Corps at San Diego, Calif., and Walter Jordan, Granite City; a daughter, Mrs. George (Barbara) Graf, Granite City; his mother, Mrs. Gertrude Jordan, Elio, Ill., a brother, Carl, of Elio, Ill., sisters, Mrs. George (Myrl) Kee, and Mrs. S. Homer (Pauline) Wright, both of Elio; and three grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Mrs. Anna Goodcock Of Glen Carbon, Dies

Funeral Mass was said this morning at St. Cecilia's Catholic Church in Glen Carbon for Mrs. Anna Marie Goodcock, 51, a sister of Albert Darnel of Granite City. She died Tuesday at St. Joseph's Hospital in Highland. She was hospitalized three weeks.

The plaintiff charged habitual drunkenness and was granted custody of four minor children. The couple was married Aug. 9, 1952, and separated last April 16.

Interment was in the Glen Carbon cemetery.

Survivors, beside the brother here, are her husband, John Goodcock, and a sister, Mrs. Marjorie Lee of Los Angeles, Calif.

Divorced Wednesday

Wanda Rogers was granted a divorce from James Rogers in city court here yesterday before Acting Judge Harold R. Clark.

The plaintiff charged habitual drunkenness and was granted custody of four minor children. The couple was married Aug. 9, 1952, and separated last April 16.

Lahay In Hospital

Francis Lahay, Madison funeral director, is a patient in Faith Hospital, St. Louis, with a high blood pressure condition. Tests are being made. He entered the hospital early Tuesday.

Drive To Keep Downtown Postal Facilities Starts

The Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce was advised today by Cong. Melvin Price that the Post Office Department will provide a contract postal station in downtown Granite City only if there is a "sustained public demand."

Chester L. Baker, C. of C. president, is asking all businesses in the downtown district to send letters to Cong. Price pointing to the need for downtown postal facilities.

Price said that after he was notified by the C. of C. of the problem to be created when the new post office building at 24th street and Madison avenue is completed, that he got in touch with Post Office Department authorities.

The letter he received from Chicago Regional Director Donald L. Swanson follows:

"Consideration cannot be given to the establishment of a classified station in the downtown area since the new post office in Granite City will be located only three blocks from the central business area and about five blocks from the present federal building which is being abandoned."

"However, if there is a broad and sustained public demand for a postal facility in the area, consideration will be given to provide service through a contract station."

"This information is submitted as requested in your (Price's) letter to the Post Office Department, Washington, D. C."

GC Tax Collector

Rich contends. He added that the tax bill forms provided by the county show that taxes should be paid at Edwardsville after June 1.

"We didn't get the tax books until June 6," Rich explained. "They went out as soon as possible and I included a notice that they could be paid in Granite City through Aug. 24, but the June 1 date is on the bill."
Musso told the Press-Record he plans to revamp the tax bill come next year and eliminate the June 1 date on those in townships where the East Side Levee & Sanitary District causes delay in getting the tax books ready.
Rich pointed out that processing of Granite City tax bills and those of other townships would require more clerical work in the treasurer's office while the local tax collectors hire extra help to process the receipts. He added that each year the Granite City collector sends out second notices and that money on postage could be saved if it was known what bills had been paid to the county.

Options Of Loss Varies
The amount of possible income loss for Granite City varies in the opinions of the local collector and the county treasurer.
Rich says that past years indicate as much as a half-million dollars in taxes has been paid at Edwardsville by Granite City property owners. The amount of commission going to the city coffers on that amount would be $10,000.

Musso says the amount this year is much less. "Two weeks ago we totaled it, and it was only about $10,000 in taxes paid here, and there's been very little since then," the treasurer said. The city's commission loss on $10,000 would be $200.

Rich said he learned of a number of payments being made at Edwardsville when he sent out second notices about two weeks ago. "One was a realty firm in St. Louis that owns quite a bit of property here. They had a new clerk who didn't know about the erroneous June 1 date, but they agreed to cancel the check to the county and send it to us," he said.

Belcoff Named

made the appointment, said it will be certified with the Illinois secretary of state. Alderman Ray Kozielek cited Belcoff as a capable administrator and a civic leader.

Six bids have been received on construction of the remainder of the Madison storm water sewer system from Eighth to 14th streets along Washington avenue. Bids will be opened at a special meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday and an award will be made after they are studied by the city's consulting engineer.

Edward Jeneau of the engineering firm of Sheppard, Morgan and Schwaab reported that it was determined that a permit from the state sanitary water board to construct the sewer was not required.

With the current construction strike, the mayor doubted that the sewer could be completed during the current construction season.

Softball Team

The council voted to contribute $200 to the Polish Hall softball team to help finance its trip to the national finals in New York state around the Labor Day holidays. The funds will be charged to the Chain of Rocks bridge advertising account.

The mayor and the council congratulated the team, and Mayor Maers remarked that "they are bringing us some fine publicity for this little hamlet and for the Quad-Cities."

A request from the Navy Mothers Club to sell "Sailor Boy" tags on Sept. 6-7 was granted.

In other action, the minutes and claims were approved.

Brother Of Mrs. J. H. Bartels Succumbs
Clarence W. (Cap) Deitz, 68, of Edwardsville, brother of Mrs. J. H. (Elsie) Bartels, 2210 Adams street, died Monday at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, of cancer. Funeral services were conducted yesterday at Edwardsville with burial at Valley View Garden of Memories.
Mr. Deitz, a world war I veteran, had been in the hospital nine days and had been ill about a year. He retired in July 1960 from a position at Shell Oil Co., Roxana.
His wife, Mrs. Mabel (Bollman) Deitz, is secretary to James Hamilton, a vice-president of Granite City Steel Co. and works at the Granite City office. Other survivors include a son, Frank, of St. Louis, a brother and four other sisters, all of Edwardsville.

Italy Inspired This Gay Salad

Old World artistry and New World convenience meet in this inspired salad. Frozen artichoke hearts, cooked according to package direction and chilled; sliced beets, canned or fresh; crisp carrot sticks and scallions; bright wedges of tomato and curly green parsley add up to an attractive variety of colors, textures and shapes. Sardines, chick peas, and hard-cooked eggs add hunger-satisfying protein and decorative qualities of their own. The center of rimmed-to-stuffed olives makes a bright hub for this colorful wheel of a salad plate.

For the dressing, oil, vinegar, salt and pepper are used at the individual's discretion.

As a luncheon salad, or as the first course for a company dinner, this is a dish aesthetically and gastronomically satisfying.

Whether served as salad or dessert, "Snow-Capped Cantaloupe" is a warm-weather delight.

Seedless grapes are heaped into California cantaloupe half-shells and peaked with fruit-flavored sour cream for this refreshing eye-catcher.

September marks the end of the season for California Mid-summer cantaloupes, so now is the time to treat yourself to an incomparable summer fruit. You'll recognize them by their beveled-colored rinds with high, well defined netting all over the exterior. Stem ends are clean because the fruit is picked only when it leaves the vines at a touch. Seed cavities are small and the thick meat is apricot color—tender, fragrant and flavorful.

Some California cantaloupes are stamped Callopo to help you identify them in markets. With or without the stamp, these are the monarchs of the melon harvest—rich in Vitamin A, a good source of ascorbic acid (Vitamin C) and elegant eating any time of day, with only 35 to 40 calories in the average half-shell.

Snow-Capped Cantaloupe

- 2 California cantaloupes
- 2 cups seedless grapes
- 1/2 cup dairy sour cream
- 2 tablespoons chopped maraschino cherries
- 1/2 teaspoon grated orange rind
- 1 tablespoon orange juice
- 1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
- 1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
- Dash salt

Cut cantaloupes into halves; remove seeds. Heap grapes into melon half-shells. Combine remaining ingredients; spoon over grapes. If you wish, garnish with cantaloupe balls and additional grapes. Makes 4 servings.

Delight Summer Fancies With Taste Surprising Raisinbread

Slices of taste surprising raisinbread are spread with a mustard flavored butter and baked in muffin cups to make these Raisin Butterscups. When toast, pile them high with creamy scrambled eggs and bacon. They're fun to eat!

During National Sandwich Month make your favorite sandwich with raisinbread. Deviled ham or cream cheese and nuts are especially good fillings. Oftentimes many varieties of raisinbread are available including cinnamon, orange and nut.

Raisin Butterscups

- 1/2 cup butter or margarine, melted
- 1 1/2 tablespoons prepared mustard
- 6 slices raisinbread
- 3 strips bacon
- 4 eggs
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/2 teaspoon seasoned salt
- Dash pepper

Blend butter and mustard together; brush over inside of 6 large muffin cups. Fit raisinbread slices gently into muffin cups; brush inside each one with remaining mustard-butter. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) until crisp and golden brown, about 15 minutes. Fry bacon until crisp. Remove bacon and all but one tablespoon drippings from skillet. Beat eggs lightly with milk, salt and pepper. Add egg mixture to hot drippings and cook over medium-low heat, stirring now and then, until eggs are set but still soft. Sprinkle crumbled bacon over eggs just before they are done. Spoon scrambled eggs into hot raisin toast cups. Makes 6 servings.

Warm Weather—Soft Cookies!

Children expected? Oatmeal cookies are in order. And a party setting of some kind. Glass cups, holding red fruit-flavored gelatin "set on a slant" are the party "surprise." Stack a circus elephant pretzel-stick with these chewy oatmeal cookie rings. Use the stick to store the cookies as well as to serve them, because the recipe bakes up soft and tender, and the flavor seems to improve in the humid air of July. Breakfast cereals are excellent for ingredient use in recipes and make nutritional contributions of protein, important B vitamins, essential minerals, and food energy.

Lemon Pecan Oatmeal Cookie Rings

- 1 cup sifted flour
- 1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup soft shortening
- 1/2 cup brown sugar, packed
- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
- 3 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 1/2 cups rolled oats
- 1/2 cup coarsely chopped pecans

Combine flour, soda, and salt; sift into large bowl of electric mixer. Add shortening, sugars, egg, lemon rind and juice. Beat at medium speed with electric mixer or by hand until smooth, about 2 minutes. Fold in rolled oats and pecans. Mix well. Turn level tablespoonfuls onto well-greased baking sheet 2 inches apart. Make a hole about 1 inch in diameter in center of each cookie, using the back of a small spoon or the handle end of a washed wooden spoon. Shape into ring with fingers. Bake in moderate oven (350° F) until done and lightly browned, 10 to 12 minutes. Remove from baking sheet at once and cool on wire rack. Yield: About 3 1/2 dozen cookies.

CONFIDENCE IS A WONDERFUL THING!

Advertising is news, too!

Through advertising in this paper you can give our readers the up-to-date news about your merchandise and services. Each one of your advertisements can be a newspaper within a newspaper.

Of course you should know all about the circulation of the newspaper that is carrying the news of your business. How many people buy the paper? Where are they located? How was the circulation obtained? To give you this information and many other facts that you need and have a right to know when you buy advertising space, this newspaper is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

Established in 1914, the Bureau is a cooperative, non-profit association of nearly 4,000 advertisers, advertising agencies and publishers. Its purpose is to furnish advertisers with verified reports on the circulation of its publisher members.

At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced auditors makes a thorough inspection and audit of our circulation records, just as the bank examiner makes a check of your bank's records. The information thus obtained is published in official A.B.C. reports. When you buy space in this newspaper our A.B.C. report tells you just what, in circulation values, you get for your advertising investment.

This newspaper is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

Advertisers are invited to ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.

To Get Away From It All

By JOHN W. ALLEN
Southern Illinois University

For those who would like to "get away from it all" for an afternoon, or even a whole day, a drive over the gravel road through the Pine Hill section of Shawnee National Forest is a suggestion.

This drive is chosen because of its short length and varied attractions. There is something alongside these few miles of forest roadway to interest each visitor. And too, this is the longest bit of road yet found in southern Illinois where there is not a dwelling or even a rural mailbox to be seen.

This 13-mile stretch of road beginning when the traveler crosses the railway after turning east off Illinois Highway 3 south of Grandtower is two miles beyond the bridge over Big Muddy River.

Swamps And Bluffs
At its beginning the road passes through a swamp with many strange varieties of plants. Then it turns north beside bluffs some 300 feet high on one side and swamp-land on the other.

In the small valleys indenting the face of bluffs can be found about all species of trees native to the end of the state. In season, rare woodland shrubs and plants will be found in bloom. The swamp across the roadway from the bluffs is several hundred acres in extent, mostly resulting from the efforts of a colony of beaver that moved in many years ago. Their dam on the west side of the roadway about two miles after crossing the two railways has been there so long and appears so natural that one must look carefully to see it.

Natural Hydraulic Engineers
A venturesome person who goes a short way along the path on top of the dam, and doesn't fall off, will realize the great amount of work done by this colony of "beaver engineers." Careful observation from the dam when foliage is not too dense will reveal some of their feats. The very fortunate visitor may see one of the inhabitants gliding rapidly and silently through the water. A great spring, choked with water plants, comes from beneath the bluff about a half mile north of the dam and keeps the pond filled. An observer soon is convinced beavers are clever hydraulic engineers.

Parts of building foundations along the bluff side of the roadway and a cemetery in the forest tell that people once lived beside the bluff. After about two and a half miles of gentle uphill downhill driving along the bluff from Elm Spring at its south end the visitor comes to another picnic site at Winter's Pond, where there are countless golden centered white water lilies.

Fishermen's Delight
This also must be a great fishing area if one may judge from the number of fishermen he sees. A roadway atop the river levee leading west from the base of the bluff near Winter's Pond goes back to Highway 3. Those who take it, however, fail to see much of the best that Pine Hills has to offer. It is better to continue to the right toward McCann's Spring picnic ground and over a fine example of a hairpin curve to Inspiration Point, about a mile beyond McCann's picnic tables.

Picnic Area
It is another picnic site. In fact, cooking facilities, picnic tables, waste cans, and toilets are at a half dozen additional picnic sites along the way. They are presently clean and well kept. The roadway leads upward along the hill crests and "hog-backs" to the south end of the ridge where one finds an east-west gravel road and a farmhouse.

It now has been 13 miles since the last farmhouse was passed. One has traveled up and down the hill all the way through an unbroken forest.

Splendid Views
The visitor also misses much who hurries past the many picnic areas on the hilltops and sitting bluffs without stopping for a leisurely look. At almost every picnic ground a fine and changed view is to be had, often over many miles. In autumn the range of colors is wonderful. As one nears the south end on the hill range he passes the Natural Wildlife Refuge, fenced and set aside as a state area for Southern Illinois University.

Those who are tired here may turn to the right and soon be back on Highway 3. It is better to take the left turn and go about three miles to the concrete bridge over Clear Creek, a stream that is said by those in the know to have real hunkers in it.

The gravel road on the west side of Clear Creek leads past wonderful corn and soybean fields to another bridge that crosses the creek at Dug Hollow. This is very near the place where the Cherokee Indians camped and died by hundreds on their forced march from this reservation in the Great Smokies to Oklahoma during the winter of 1838-1839. A short way east of the creek on Highway 146 is a bronze plaque which marks this as a place on the Trail of Tears.

Illinois Highway 146 may be taken west from here to Route 3, but one really shouldn't. If one wishes to continue his journey and return to Route 3, a few miles farther south it can be done by taking the gravel road leading south from the west end of the bridge. This takes the visitor through the Union County Game Refuge. In summer it is through great fields of corn, soybeans, barley, wheat, and ladino clover. It is not permissible to sell the grain grown on the refuge, hence it is fed to the waterfowl that gather in winter.

In season one may see hundreds of thousands of wild geese and ducks feeding here. Since geese and ducks do not like to eat from piles of grain their feed is scattered over the fields by using mowers. As many as 15,000 people have passed over this gravel road during the goose and duck season to see what is literally fields of waterfowl.

When one reaches the west end near the south end of the refuge it is not unusual to see young raccoons feeding or playing along the roadway. On the latest trip through this woodland, three baby raccoons and one large and very dark one were seen.

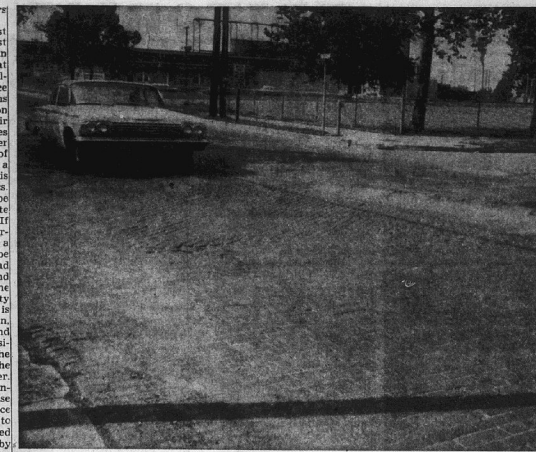

The gravel road leads onward to Illinois Highway 3. When the distance traveled after leaving the highway south of Big Muddy bridge is noted, the driver finds he has gone about 23 miles. He has seen a most varied and interesting bit of country. Side roads really can be interesting.

ROUGH AND HAZARDOUS brick pavement at the busy 20th and Benton street intersection is scheduled for resurfacing. The city council authorized a bid call Monday night and will use state-allocated maintenance funds for the work. It was estimated the job would cost under the $1500 allotted each year to the city for maintenance of all of 20th street, which carries U.S. Highway 67a traffic.

Resurfacing Project

Year's Maintenance Fund To Be Spent At 20th And Benton

Resurfacing of the rough and hazardous 20th and Benton streets intersection is planned by the city council. The city is using a $1500 annual maintenance allowance received from the state.

The allotment is for maintenance of the entire length of 20th street—Missouri avenue to Benton street, which carries U.S. Highway 67a traffic through the city.

Objection to use of the fund was raised by several aldermen who said they believed the city street department could do the job at less cost. However, Supl. of Streets William Warfield said an asphalt spreader would be needed to do the job properly.

Also, the brick roadway, which has depressions and numerous rough patches, needs to be repaired before resurfacing.

Alderman Edmund Bartoski pointed out the city department had done a similar job on a section of 27th street between Cleveland and Delmar avenue last month. He said the street department should do the 20th-Benton street resurfacing.

It was brought out that heavily-traveled 20th street presents other problems which could be handled better by a contractor with proper equipment. The block of 27th street was barricaded several days for the resurfacing there.

G. H. Sternberg pointed out that 20th street not only carries a large amount of traffic but also handles a large number of trucks. He agreed with Warfield that the city did not have the proper equipment to do the job.

He pointed out the bids would be sought immediately in an effort to get the resurfacing done in time for crosswalk stripes to be painted for the start of school, Sept. 3.

If the work is not accomplished in time, the crosswalk striping will be held up at the intersection. The crossings for nearby Emerson elementary school are protected with electric signal lights operated during school hours.

No Marketing Quotas For 1964 Wheat Crop

In response to questions concerning the 1964 wheat program, Edwin C. Rethmeier, chairman, Madison county ASC committee, today reminded farmers that marketing quotas are not in effect for 1964 crop wheat.

This means, he said, there are no planting or marketing restrictions for next year. However, to be eligible for price support at about $1.25 per bushel the 1964 wheat acreage must not exceed the acreage allotment.

Overplanting the allotment will make producers ineligible for price-support and will reduce acreage allotments six or seven percent for future years.

Farmers who have conservation contracts agreed to plant within the larger of the farm acreage allotment or 15 acres, and this means that the 1964 conservation reserve payment for the farm is dependent on planting wheat within this acreage. If there are any questions concerning the 1964 wheat program, please call at the Madison County ASCS Office in Edwardsville.

STATE GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS is the topic as five area high school juniors attending the recent second annual Youth World Program at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, talk with Michael Nee (right), University of Illinois political science graduate from Cleveland, O. They are, from left—William Bierbaum and Donald Morrison, Alton; Debrah Spengler, Granite City; Bill Willis, East Alton; and Roger D. Roy, Litchfield. ## One-Way Traffic To Be Enforced In Main GCHS Halls

One-way traffic will prevail in the main halls of Granite City high school when the fall term resumes on Sept. 3.

It will ease the tangled jam-up of humanity, experienced in the past, as students move between classes.

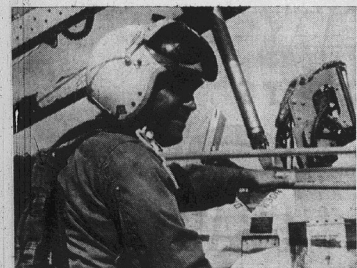

The traffic jams in the narrow halls had become increasing more serious with expanded enrollments, as a one-way system was instituted late in the spring semester during the last year on the recommendation of the student council.

Students will move toward the cafeteria along the downstairs hall and toward the gymnasium along the upstairs hall.

A two-way system will continue to be used in the halls of the wings leading to the parking lot.

A one-minute bell also will be used in the halls of the continued. Students in a specified group of rooms will leave their group of rooms at the sound of the bell students worked with computers and will be followed one minute later by students in the other laboratory workshops, conducted rooms.

The system will ease many trips.

Sampling your soil now and buying your fertilizer according to the soil test recommendations will enable you to take advantage of fertilizer discounts on early orders. If you haven't tested your soil lately, chances are you'll make out wages from the increased yields you'll get from proper fertilization.

But lime and fertilizer recommendations based on soil test results are no better than the soil samples you take from the field. When the soil finally gets into the laboratory test tube, about one teaspoonful will represent two to four acres, be sure, it's the right teaspoonful.

Simple your soil at least a month ahead of the time you'll order lime and fertilizer. Laboratory tests need at least 10 days to properly condition the soil for accurate testing. You can sample any time—as long as you can keep the soil. But it's nearly impossible to get representative samples from frozen ground. Plan to test a field every six to eight years.

When you sample, stay away from unusual areas such as mounds, piles, fence rows, dead furrows or where you've band-fertilized. Sample separately any area that differs widely in color, texture or slope. Since you farm the land, you're the best informed on its past history and use.

If you plan to take a large number of samples, a soil auger or "tube" handles the job easiest. Take a core or sample of soil to plow depth in at least four places within each two-to-four-acre area. To make a composite sample of about one cupful. This is enough to send for testing.

Don't mix up your samples. Make a map of the areas you sample; then label each sample accordingly. Also include information on the kind of soil, type of land, drainage, the cropping and fertility history of the past three years and the intended crop use for the next four years.

Your farm adviser needs this information to give you the best lime and fertilizer recommendation for each field.

Detailed directions for soil sampling are available at the farm adviser's office.

BOOKLET FOR DAIRYMEN

The Midwest Plan Service has released another in a series of equipment plan booklets for livestock producers—this one written especially for dairymen.

The University of Illinois agricultural engineer Art Muehling says the 72-page booklet entitled "Dairy Equipment, Plans and Housing Needs," contains dozens of detailed plans for such equipment as dairy feeders and waterers, loading chutes, cable and plank fences, and gates.

The book also gives planning and layout suggestions for milking plants, stall barns, horse housing set-ups, pen arrangements and feeding systems. A special reference section includes specifications for concrete mixes, building materials and electric motors.

The booklets sell for one dollar each at the farm adviser's office.

HOMER GARDENING AID

The Madison county extension office has just received its copy of "Diseases of Ornamental Plants" by J. L. Forestry of the Illinois Natural History Survey at the University of Illinois.

This 225-page paperback book covers the cause and treatment of diseases most frequently encountered on commonly-grown flowers and shrubs.

The book contains about 200 photographs, five pages of line drawings, a glossary and a bibliography. The introductory section gives a general discussion of disease problems and methods and materials used in their control. The book discusses modern fungicides, giving their descriptions and names under which the material may be purchased.

It also covers specific diseases of 57 plants, alphabetized by common name, with causes, symptoms and control measures.

Irish Inn Appeal

Under Adversement

By State Board

(Special from Springfield)

A decision is expected next week on a county liquor license revocation appeal by Mrs. Laddie Shastid, licensee for the Irish Inn. It was announced following Monday's all-day session of the Illinois Liquor Commission.

Mrs. Shastid had appealed a revocation of her license by the liquor commission based on a recommendation by the sheriff's office for reported sale of liquor to minors.

Three Roxana teenagers were among those testifying at the hearing along with Louis Bowman, chief investigator for the sheriff's office, and Earl Herrin, member of the county liquor control commission. The county's case was presented by Assistant State's Atty. Richard Allen.

Two of the three youths, both 17, testified they had purchased six packs of beer from Mrs. Shastid last May. Another said he bought beer from a bartender, and that Mrs. Shastid was behind the bar and had asked the price by the bartender.

In her testimony, Mrs. Shastid said she had been warned by the sheriff's office prior to the May incident. She has been licensee of the tavern on Chouteau road since 1948.

The new publication should serve as a reliable, useful guide for home gardeners and commercial growers of ornamentals, as well as teachers and students.

The book is available at the Agricultural Information Office, 112 Mumfords Hall, University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill. It costs two dollars plus tax.

ESTABLISH LAWN IN FALL

If you're establishing a lawn—falls the recommended time—pay close attention to the kind of seed, rate of seeding and preparation of the seedbed.

Kentucky or Merion bluegrass and red fescue are suitable grasses. For temporary cover you may want to use redtop or ryegrass. After grading and smoothing the area, apply lime if needed. After working the soil, rake on lightly disk a starter fertilizer from 10 to 15 pounds of 10-4 or similar analysis fertilizer per 1000 square feet of lawn should work well as a starter.

Just before seeding, break all lumps or remove them from the seedbed. Smooth the soil. Use a high-quality seed at the rate of 2 or 3 pounds of seed for every 1000 square feet. You'll get more complete coverage and uniform distribution of seed with a mechanical seed spreader. After sowing, rake lightly to cover the seed. Then roll or firm it into the soil and stabilize the seedbed.

Next mow any slopes with burr-lap or straw if you use straw, be sure it's weed free. Keep the soil surface moist until the seed has become well established, then soak the soil to a depth of six inches and decrease the number of waterings for best results.

Two circulars, available at the farm adviser's office, will help you with lawn problems. Ask for Circular 729, "How to Have an Attractive Lawn," and the newly released Circular 873, "Lawn Weeds: Identification and Control."

TOP MILK PRODUCERS

The ten highest milk-producing herds in the Madison County Dairy Herd Improvement Association for the last month of testing were owned by C. C. Becker and Son, Normann Henke, J. W. Autry, Eugene Meffert, Leland Steiner, Elmer Kienke, Waldo Keibach, Walter Seifers, Martin and Willard Blase and Rudy Kuttin.

A new variety of watermelon of the small ice-box size called Klondike grown by Edwin A. Brockmann of Chouteau town, has excellent flavor and is unusually sweet, better than most of the ice-box varieties.

The committee was informed by Rep. Lloyd "Curly" Harris that the status of a large number of bills will not be known until they have been submitted to the governor. He added that he and the other area legislators would be pleased to meet with the council group.

Curb Repair Bids To Be Sought By GC Council

Authorization was granted Monday night by Granite City council members for bids to be sought for repairs to broken curbs in the city. A replacement figure per linear foot will be sought.

The city has set up $20,000 in the new budget for the annual project. However, objection was raised by Alderman Edmund Hartsoski, who suggested the council forego the program this year as an economy measure.

It was brought out by Alderman Paul Rutledge that the program should be continued because of city liability. He and several other aldermen pointed out broken curbs were as hazardous as defective sidewalks and the repair program would be needed to comply with terms of the city's liability insurance policy.

Township To Seek Bids On Garage Painting Project

Bids will be sought by Name-old township on the cost of painting and waterproofing the west side of the township garage and painting the building's three overhead garage doors and wood trim. It was agreed to by board members Monday evening at the regular meeting of the township board of auditors.

In the absence of Township Supervisor Harry A. Briggs, who is on vacation, John Karlechik, town clerk, presided over the meeting. Herbert Polley, a member of the board, acted as town clerk.

The recommendation to paint the side of the building and the roof was made by Highway Commissioner Charles Hanks.

He said that the doors had last been painted over two years ago. The front, back and east side of the building is not yet in need of a paint job, according to Hanks.

Bids will be sought from two painters in the township, Earl Stout and the Clifford Cozart Painting Co. The side of the building is 60 feet long and about 16 feet high.

Lot To Be Oiled
Hanks also announced that his highway crew was ready to oil and chip the township office parking lot.

It would be more economical, said Strackeljohn, for the township to own its office equipment rather than renting it. A low bid made by Triangle Typewriter on the two pieces of equipment was also discussed.

The price of the Olympia typewriter and an Olivetti-Underwood adding machine submitted by the Triangle Typewriter and supplies were $225 and $285 respectively. Two rented adding

Electronic Link For SIU, SWIU Campuses

Electronic data processing and computing systems on Southern Illinois University's Carbondale and Southern Western campuses will be linked together with completion of equipment installation now underway.

John W. Hamblen, data processing director, said the connection will provide for exchange of data via telephone lines. The link will greatly expand the potential of present systems on both campuses.

The two campuses, 115 miles apart, have compatible computer systems although that at Carbondale has greater capacity. Magnetic tape units similar to those in use at Carbondale were added to the Southwestern system last January.

In addition to data transmission unit, a random access storage unit will be installed at Carbondale. Hamblen said this will provide greatly increased data storage capacity, with easy access to data which may be used repeatedly.

The SIU computing equipment is used to assemble and maintain records on admissions, registration, grades, personnel, payroll, curricula, budget and account figures, alumni and placement lists, and many other administrative records, Hamblen said, as well as for research and instruction.

Supervisor Visiting Jehovah's Witnesses

Circuit Supervisor Addison L. Abernathy, who serves Illinois Circuit Six as a representative of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, is visiting the Granite City congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses this week. His visit is designed to aid ministers and students to develop their ministry further.

Francis H. Clanton, presiding minister of the local congregation, has outlined the week's program which began at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday with the ministry training school and service meeting. House-to-house visits are made to discuss Bible research.

At 8 p.m. Saturday there will be a program designed to assist members in improving personal ministry. At 3 p.m. Sunday Mr. Abernathy will deliver a public address on "Is Your Destiny of Your Own Making?"

The meetings are being held in the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 1126 Madison avenue. The public is invited.

After a brisk discussion of the reciprocal aspects of foreign trade and the quality of the typewriter, board members, including Schreiber, agreed to purchase the German machine. Sidewalks Sought At School

Highway Commissioner Hanks announced that he had been receiving requests from residents of Miracle Manor near Maryville school for sidewalks to be constructed in the area. He said, however, that any road or sidewalk work to be done in the area would have to be done by the county since the county was now responsible for road maintenance in that locale.

Bills approved by the board were $39 for town fund disbursements and $794 for road and bridge repair.

The next regular meeting of the township board will be held until Monday, Sept. 9. But Monday, Aug. 26, will be the public hearing on the township's tentative road and bridge budget, and Tuesday, Sept. 3, the annual road and bridge meeting will be held.

Highway Commissioner Hanks announced that he had been receiving requests from residents of Miracle Manor near Maryville school for sidewalks to be constructed in the area. He said, however, that any road or sidewalk work to be done in the area would have to be done by the county since the county was now responsible for road maintenance in that locale.

Bills approved by the board were $39 for town fund disbursements and $794 for road and bridge repair.

The next regular meeting of the township board will be held until Monday, Sept. 9. But Monday, Aug. 26, will be the public hearing on the township's tentative road and bridge budget, and Tuesday, Sept. 3, the annual road and bridge meeting will be held.

After a brisk discussion of the reciprocal aspects of foreign trade and the quality of the typewriter, board members, including Schreiber, agreed to purchase the German machine. Also cited by Auditor Robert Strackeljohn was the rental fee now owed to the Triangle Typewriter and Supplies Co., 1516 State street, Granite City, for the use of one typewriter and two adding machines since mid-May.

It would be more economical, said Strackeljohn, for the township to own its office equipment rather than renting it. A low bid made by Triangle Typewriter on the two pieces of equipment was also discussed.

The price of the Olympia typewriter and an Olivetti-Underwood adding machine submitted by the Triangle Typewriter and supplies were $225 and $285 respectively. Two rented adding machines, and one rented typewriter will be returned to the dealer.

Census Bureau Can Provide Proof Of Age

A report recently released by the Bureau of Census, U.S. Department of Commerce, showed that last year more than 800,000 residents of Illinois turned to the Bureau for help in proving where and when they were born.

The information seekers needed proof of age to collect social security and other retirement benefits, to obtain passports, to qualify for jobs carrying certain age or citizenship requirements or for some forms of insurance.

These persons who requested assistance from the Census Bureau last year were among an estimated 20 million United States residents who are without proof of age or birthplace. The historical records of the Bureau provide the only acceptable source of this information for many of these people. Since its beginning, the Census Bureau has provided copies of these records to about three and one-half million people, as legal proof of age, place of birth, citizenship, or kinship.

Persons seeking such information should write to the Personal Census Service Branch, Bureau of the Census, Pittsburgh, Kan., for an application form. A fee of $3 is charged for a census of not more than two censuses for one person and for one copy of the information found. A routine search may take as long as 30 days.

Those wanting records for social security purposes should go to the Social Security Office in East St. Louis.

This situation has been excellent at Little Grassy for about two weeks, with considerable bass and crappie hooked the past few days.

Among the better bass catches, Larry Kristoff of Carbondale caught a six-pounder using a Bomber; Lee Miller of Belleville caught seven ranging from a pound and a half to three pounds on a plastic worm; David and Tim Jobe of Bloomington caught seven bass using Gold Diggers; Mary Tagan of Bethalto hooked 11 using a plastic worm; John Stacy of Granite City brought seven, the largest three pounds, and N. Kluo of Carbondale caught five bass with a plastic worm. They weighed between a pound and a half and two pounds.

Don Craig of Bloomington brought in 50 crappie caught with minnows.

There were several nice catches of bluegills as lots of fishermen thronged to the lake. Water conditions were good.

Devil's Kitchen reported that catfish were biting worms with some nice catches. Ben Walker caught a five-pound bass and Cline Skelcher brought in three three-pounders and two that weighed two pounds each. Plastic worms were a popular bass bait.

Bluegills were taking red worms and black worms. Skelcher reported. The bluegills are bedding up in about 20 feet of water, he said, adding that the bass are down about 25 feet. Water is clear.

Catfish continue to bite at Lake Murphysboro with nice catches of channel cat being brought in. Best bait appears to be shiners. Very few bass have been reported the past few days, but bluegills and redear are taking worms in 15 to 16 feet of water. The lake is clear.

Crab Orchard lake fishing has been slow for several days now, although the water appears to be in good shape. There was one report that a five-pound, five-ounce bass was taken late last week.

Fishing was reported as just fair in the Ohio around Golconda and slow in Lusk and Grand Pierre, which empty into the Ohio near Golconda.

BIG BASS SPECIALISTS If you want to catch big bass, you've got to be a specialist, says a fish biologist at Southern Illinois University. Studies indicate the lunker-size bass generally stay where there is an abundance of food, usually in deeper water, and are a sluggish fish. Also, a study made by Robert M. Tarrant Jr., in 1950, indicates large bass prefer the large bait.

A lunker specialist might be considered a fellow who fishes large, deep-running lures or, if a live bait fisherman, uses king-size minnows and seeks out the deep holes.

Tarrant's study, part of his work for a master's degree at Southern, involved segregating four bass of different sizes and offering each bass five large and five small green sunfish each day for 48 days. The largest bass made 88% of his diet on the large sunfish, the second largest 55%, the third largest 25% and the smallest only 14%.

Social Security Aid For Ill Or Injured

Workers who are unable to work due to a serious illness or injury that is expected to continue for a long and indefinite period should file a claim for disability benefits, said Ralph Brasher, district manager of the East St. Louis Social Security office.

He further said that qualified workers could draw disability benefits regardless of age and that benefits also can be paid to the wife and minor children of beneficiaries. Brasher advised persons who feel they might qualify to get in touch with the Social Security office located at 435 Missouri avenue, East St. Louis. He further stated that it is not necessary to submit a doctor's statement at the time of filing as the Social Security Office will explain just what medical evidence is needed and will furnish the claimant with the proper medical forms. Persons physically unable to come into the district office should notify the office and a field representative will make a house visit.

Building Permits For August Reach Total Of $129,799

A supplemental building permit issued for the Travelodge motel, for added construction costs of $63,141 sent the total value of construction for the first half of August zooming past the $100,000 mark.

The amount represented the additional cost of construction over the estimate designated in the original permit according to Earl Bloomquist, building inspector.

It placed the total for the first half of the month at $129,799, well ahead of the pace for the first half of July. Construction values in last month's 61 permits totaled $144,490, a low for the year. Thirty-two permits have been issued so far this month. Without the supplemental permit, the total would have been only $64,858, behind the pace set in July.

New Church
Among the latest permits was one issued to Calvary Temple for a new church building at West 25th and Logan streets at a cost of $18,000. It will be a 36 by 60-foot structure with a 24-square-foot cafeteria, sign and the pastor.

Other permits for commercial purposes were issued to T. Bloodworth for general repairs to an office at 2036 Edison avenue, $1000; Charles "Bill" Burns, a 24-square-foot cafeteria, sign and the pastor.

A pharmacist may reach for a bottle of aminophylline only once a year, yet always has this heart medicine on hand in case an emergency arises.

Approximately 300 pharmaceuticals account for 75% of all prescriptions. Nevertheless, the average pharmacist stocks more than 3,000 drug items so that he will be able to fill immediately even the less common prescriptions.

In addition, your Hub Drug pharmacist must be prepared to answer questions from doctors about drug dosage, strengths and available forms and sizes. To acquire this knowledge, he spends long hours supplementing his professional education by keeping abreast of the latest pharmaceutical developments.

Because the pharmacist keeps more than 3,000 pharmaceuticals in stock and because he is well informed about them, you can be sure that the prescription your doctor writes will be filled accurately and when you need it. Your pharmacist — like doctors, prescription drug manufacturers and drug wholesalers — is a vital member of the team that makes today's life-giving medicines available to you.

VA Asks Vets For Dependency Data

Dependent parents of 1,500 deceased Illinois veterans receiving service-connected death compensation from the Veterans Administration will find a special dependency questionnaire in the envelope with their monthly checks Aug. 31.

"Be sure and fill out the questionnaire and return it promptly," John R. Naser, VA's regional manager for Illinois, urged today. At the same time, 564 veterans in the state who are receiving additional service-connected disability compensation because of a dependent parent also will receive the dependency questionnaire, Naser said. In cases of veterans so disabled that they cannot manage their affairs, the parents will be asked to complete the questionnaire.

The manager explained that at the time parents were placed on the compensation rolls, they were definitely determined to be dependent. The purpose of the questionnaire now is to establish their continued dependency. Since the cards will be handled by machinery, VA adds an additional caution — "don't fold, cut, mutilate or trim. Just fill out and return by Oct. 31, the deadline."

Condemnations In GC To Proceed Shortly

Granite City council members were advised Monday night that preparations will begin within the next two weeks to proceed with condemnation of dilapidated structures. A list of such buildings, many designated as fire and health hazards, has been growing for about three years because of delays resulting in the city's legal department. It was reported by Alderman Paul Rutledge, chairman of the Finance committee. Rutledge said his committee has conferred with City Atty. George Filioff Jr., and that arrangements are being made for added legal assistance in preparing for condemnation action. A list of the property to be condemned is to be distributed to the council members by Building Inspector Earl Bloomquist. Property owners will be notified to either make necessary repairs or buildings will be razed.

Vacation Running Out, Week To 10 Days Remain

Students attending Madison and Venice public schools have only one week of vacation left. Classes start next Thursday. Students attending Granite City public schools have a few extra days of grace, not having to report until Sept. 3.

By that time, it will be "everybody out of the pool." Starting times for college students vary according to the schools they plan to attend. The fall semester at Southwestern Illinois university will not begin until Sept. 28. In the past colleges traditionally started late to permit boys on the farm to complete the harvest. But this is no longer the case.

High school principals report that they are ready to go. Francis Dant, Madison high school principal, reported that most students received their class schedules last week. Madison students will have just a half day of school on the first day, as a general teachers meeting is scheduled for 1 p.m. in the MHS auditorium where Wenzel Brown, school superintendent, will speak. Teachers then will report to their own schools for meetings with principals.

Orientation and scheduling were underway this week at Venice and Lincoln high schools, and registration continued at Granite City high and junior high schools. The transition from the easy summer living to classroom regimentation generally is not a difficult or long process. Students will soon smooth out a routine of studies and organizational activities in the schools.

State Capitol NEWS

STATE JOB EXAMS

A special series of state merit examinations has been announced by Miss Maude Myers, director of the Illinois Department of Personnel. The examinations will cover such positions as activity program aid II, chief public health veterinarian, meat cutter, prison agricultural foreman III, prison clerk II and prison vocational schools supervisor.

Interested persons with training and experience in any of these areas should apply to the Department of Personnel, 121 State Capitol, Springfield, on or before Aug. 23.

DUCK BLIND REGISTRATION

Hunters who had duck blinds last hunting season in navigation pools 12, 13 and 14, Mississippi River, located in Jo Daviess, Carroll, or Whiteside counties, except in Potter's Marsh, must register their blinds with the conservation officer of the county where the blind was located by Aug. 26. Hunters who constructed blinds in these areas during the 1961 season will have priority in claiming and re-registering the same blind sites. All blinds not claimed by Aug. 26 will be allocated by the local conservation officer on a first-come, first-served basis.

LOW BIDS ONLY ON COAL

Gov. Otto Kerner has vetoed a bill that would have abolished the present state practice of awarding coal contracts to the lowest bidder. The governor pointed out that under previous administrations, the state spent hundreds of thousands of dollars extra by not awarding to the lowest bidders.

Appeal To Motorists

A word of caution for motorists was issued today by Don Watson, president of the Quad-City Safety Council, as another school year approaches. "As motorists, you are expected to obey traffic regulations at all times, but be especially alert in school zones," Watson said. "There are designated areas for children to cross the streets."

but a child who is late for school may dart across in the middle of the block without any warning. Be cautious in school zones. Drive not only within the speed limit, but also with care. "For many youngsters, this will be their first year in school. Their experience in street crossing and traffic is limited. Give these five and six year olds a break and a chance to learn; in a short while they will become good pedestrians. "Also," advises Watson, "observe the 20 mph speed limit in school zones. "This limit is in effect on school days when children are present. Even traveling five miles per hour above the speed limit may result in tragedy should a child dart into the street. "It requires an additional half car length to stop when traveling five miles per hour above the posted limit."

Man Hit On Head With Bottle In Tavern Brawl

Twelve stitches were required to close the wound of a Granite City man who was hit over the head with a beer bottle during an argument at 1:30 a.m. at the Triangle lounge, 1424 Fourth street, Madison.

He is Fred Seifried, 21, of 3221 Rodger avenue. Seifried, who was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital, and Charles Ray, 17, of 2904 Denver street, were charged with fighting.

Statements were taken from four witnesses who told police Ray struck Seifried with the bottle. Ray fled the tavern but was caught by three of the witnesses in the 200 block of Madison avenue.

They were identified as Frank Campbell, 25, of 2309 State street; Bob Childers, 25, of 4505 Maryville road; and Jimmie Joe White, 27, of 12574 Niederrhous avenue. Another witness was Jerry Allen Hall, 22, of 3125 Willow avenue.

Seifried was released on personal bond pending a hearing at 10 a.m. Saturday. Ray was held at Allen Hall and had been released from the Granite City jail at 10:55 a.m. Monday after they were picked up and held for investigation. They were passengers in a car that had passed two stop signs.

GC Council Takes Action To Seek Bids For Street Equipment And Drainage Line

Equipment bids, drainage project, a review of lift station warning devices and award of a contract to paint crosswalk stripes was among the wide variety of business conducted at Monday night's Granite City council session.

After getting off to a slow start for the first hour—debating minutes of the hectic Aug. 5 session—the aldermanic board continued in session another two hours to complete the business of the evening.

Bids are to be sought for heavy equipment for the street department, with an added study to be made to determine if such items as high lifts, a street sweeper, an air compressor and motor grader, can be obtained through government surplus sales.

Bids also are to be sought for a drainage line at Vesel and Lynch avenues, and the city attorney was instructed to pave the way for similar projects at the east end of Pershing avenue, at Vesel and Spaulding avenues, and on Smith street, which is off Wayne avenue.

Restudy Warning System

Representatives of Potter Electric Signal Co., the lone bidder for the proposed warning system for the city's 13 sanitary sewer lift stations are to revisit Granite City this week to restudy the three types of stations.

G. H. Sternberg pointed out the system proposed by the firm would not be proper and that the sewer system needs to be inspected more closely. The warning devices, he explained, need to be in the lift station walls. Authorization was given for another proposal to be submitted.

Council members authorized a bid for two new trucks for the street department—two included in the new budget. Bids for other street department equipment will be sought over a period of time during the fiscal year, depending on a policy to be set by the council.

Supt. of Streets William Warfield said his greatest need is for a high lift, and that the department also needs the sweeper, air compressor and grader.

In the budget is $15,000 for such equipment. Sternberg suggested it all might be obtained over a three-year lease-purchase arrangement and still keep within the current budget.

Lease-Purchase Proposal

He explained the city could buy an air compressor that would cost $3500 cash, for about $7500 over three years. "I know you don't like the term interest," but with this procedure the city could proceed with the lease-purchase of the needed equipment and stay within the budget figure," he added.

Council members decided to proceed with the call for bids on the high lift and to determine if the equipment could be bought at less cost from government surplus stores. However, there was indication the lease-purchase procedure also would be considered.

Drainage Bids

Specifications for the Vesel and Lynch avenues drainage line, prepared at an earlier date, are to be reviewed by the city engineering staff before bids are sought.

City Atty. George Pileoff Jr. was assigned the task of determining any legal procedures required before plans will be devised for the other proposed drainage projects.

Three bids for painting crosswalk stripes were received with the contract award going to the Wood River Painting Co. on its figure of six cents per lineal foot for the first 5000 feet of six-inch striping. On the second 5000 feet, the bid figure was five cents per foot, and for over 10,000 feet, the cost will be five cents.

It was estimated that over 17,000 feet of the first 5000 feet will be needed. The bid figure on that amount would be $925. The company is to do its own broom sweeping in advance of painting and handle its own barriers.

Other Paint Bids

Other bidders were Clifford Cozart Painting Co. and Arthur D. Roseman Painting Co.

Cozart bid a total of $1400 for the first 5000 feet and $1400 for the second 5000 feet and a cost of 25 cents per lineal foot over 10,000. Roseman's bid was 10 cents per foot for the first 5000 feet, 16 cents per foot for the second 5000 feet and 10 cents for each additional foot over 10,000.

Sternberg suggested that because of the variance in figures the bids be reviewed, but because of the need to paint crosswalks at schools before the Sept. 9 start of school, it was decided to proceed with the contract award. School crosswalks are to be painted first.

Speed Controls On State St.

A request for speed limit signs to be installed along State street north of 26th street was made by Sternberg, who said he had received complaints that the thoroughfare was becoming a speedway from 27th street to Fehling road. He was advised that the park district owns the right-of-way north of Niedringhaus grade school.

Supt. of Streets Warfield was asked by Alderman Paul Rutledge to post bus zone signs on the west side of Delmar avenue at the 24th street parkway. Council members referred to the Finance committee for study

Navy Mothers To Hold Sale And 'Tag Days'

Two requests from Quad-City Navy Mothers Unit 850 were approved Monday night by Granite City council members, permitting a household articles sale Saturday on the downtown parking lot of the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank and for "Sailor Boy Tag Days" on Sept. 6 and 7.

The requests were presented to the council by Norman Darnell, unit adjutant. The tags are to be sold by the members in business districts on Friday and Saturday.

Scrapes Side Of Car

While she was backing out of an angle parking position Monday at Sixth street and Madison avenue, Madison Leveverich, Weston, 48, of 1012 Calhoun street, Venice, scraped the left side of a car owned by Robert C. Rippey, 38, of 1308 Meridian street. She said Rippey's car was parked close to hers.

Other committees were urged by Alderman Ford Johnson, chairman of the Fire and Water committee, to meet with the committee and representatives of the fire department on the department's proposed new sick leave program. It was explained the same policy probably would be extended to other departments.

Street Light Requests

Referred to the Light committee and the Street and Alley committee was a request from the Granite City Housing Authority for street lights and stop signs in the Anchorage project for the elderly.

Street Light Requests

It was brought out that stop signs are needed because of the intersections of East 25th street and Anchorage avenue.

Street Light Requests

The request calls for stop signs at the intersections of East 25th street and Anchorage avenue, East 25th and Edwards street and at Edwards street and Anchorage avenue.

Street Light Requests

The lights were requested for East 25th and Anchorage, the curve on East 25th street inside the project, at Edwards street and Anchorage avenue and at Edwards street and East 25th.

Street Light Requests

Additional street lights in other sections of the city were recommended by Steve Easurich, chairman of the Light committee, but action was deferred to study the requests. A resolution for installation of the lights is to be submitted next week.

Street Light Requests

Most of the street lights were requested in the last addition to Glenview subdivision—four along Cardinal avenue, on Della avenue, Terminal avenue, Saratoga avenue and National avenue, along with two along McKinley avenue in West Granite, the 1700 block of Garfield avenue and on 17th street between Delmar avenue and Cleveland blvd.
